

International Online Course on the Clinical Management of DR-TB – June 2023 schedule

- Independent study will include the review of pre-recorded presentations, reading materials and contributions to the forum. They will be completed here: <https://coursesonline.theunion.org>
- Live sessions will take place on Zoom. All live sessions will take place at 9am UK/10am Paris / 4pm Taipei / 7pm Sydney

International Online Course on the Clinical Management of DR-TB – 2023 content

Week 1	Week 2	Week 3
Principles of tuberculosis (TB) care and prevention	Case finding of drug-resistant TB	Active tuberculosis drug safety monitoring and management (aDSM)
TB: The organism and the host	Treatment of new and previously treated TB, isoniazid resistant TB	Management of adverse drug reactions
Basic concepts of drug-resistance in TB	Treatment of rifampicin-resistant TB: long regimen and fluoroquinolone	Management of DR-TB in patients with liver disease, renal insufficiency and pregnancy
Global epidemiology of drug-resistant TB and contributing factors	Bedaquiline, linezolid, Clofazimine	MDR-TB in children and management of contact of DR-TB
Clinical and radiographic manifestations of TB and drug-resistant TB	Delamanid, Pretomanid, Imipenem/Meropenem	Surgical intervention in the management of MDR- and XDR-TB
Conventional anti-TB drug susceptibility testing	Short course chemotherapy for MDR-TB	Care and support for patients with MDR/RR-TB
Rapid diagnosis of drug-resistant TB: Xpert	HIV and MDR-TB: clinical manifestations and diagnosis	Infection control - minimal requirements
Rapid diagnosis of drug-resistant TB: Line probe assay	Management of DR-TB among people living with HIV	Management of drug-resistant TB in the era of COVID-19